“Now the work begins.”

An 80% quorum of Member Delegates selected a new Main Table for the Fraser Salmon Management Council (FSMC) at a recent Assembly. Starting their four-year term are:

Lower Fraser:

Ken Malloway (Kwaw Kwaw Apilt)
Dominic Hope (Yale First Nation)

Marine Approach / Island:

Carl Edgar Jr (Ditidaht)
Greg Wadhams ('Namgis)
Larry George (Cowichan Tribes)

Mid Fraser:

Tina Donald (Simpcw)

Upper Fraser:

Darren Haskell (Tl'azt'en)

Both the Upper and mid Fraser will soon name their second Main Table representative.

Member Delegates are appointed by council resolution from First Nations who've signed the Letter of Understanding with DFO. “We now have a significant number of BCRs,” said Ken Malloway. “Momentum is building.”

Long-time participants were also encouraged by the continued growth of the Fraser Salmon Management Council. “At the start we were sitting in our own areas,” observed Carl Edgar Jr. “Now we’re all sitting together.”

The first business meeting of the new Main Table will be in just a few weeks’ time. They’ll select a Chair and start on the tasks to be carried out before next fishing season begins. Or in the words of new Main Table representative Tina Donald: “O’K now the work begins.”

Fraser Salmon Management Council

"Learning is part of being a formal governance structure," said Sheldon Tetreault (Guerin-Tetreault Associates). Over the course of the day questions covered topics such as building processes based on "astute" First Nations protocols and reporting out to the communities. Here Sheldon speaks with (L-R clockwise): Darren Haskell (Tl'azt'en); Dean Joseph (Yekooche); Neil Heron (Stellat'en); Carl Frederick Jr. (Lheidli T'enneh); Thomas Alexis (Tl'azt'en) and Chief Patrick Harry (Stswecem'c Xgat'tem).
